

Fire Awareness Training Course

Duration

(2 hrs approx)

Concept

A course designed to meet requirements under the Fire Precautions (Workplace) Regulations 1997/99 and the Fire Precautions Act 1971.

Aims

The Fire Safety Awareness course is aimed at all levels of personnel. It will enable each student on completion of the course, to demonstrate knowledge of fire safety and how to use different types of extinguishers.

Course Syllabus

- Introduction
- The 'Fire Safety Order' (Legislation)
- The 'Responsible Person'
- Employee responsibilities
- Common causes of a fire
- How fire spreads
- Basic prevention
- Types of fire
- Fire fighting equipment
- Identifying hazards
- Managing those with special needs
- Risk Assessment -Reducing the risk!
- Actions in the event of a fire
- Fire safety inspections
- Liaising with the emergency services